About the UIL Sports Officiating Department

The UIL Sports Officiating Department is dedicated to providing the proper representation and leadership for Texas High School Sports Officials. This website has been designed to enhance communication and improve officiating in the state of Texas. Beginning with the 2010-11 season, we will use this website to register as well as to provide online resources, testing and materials from the UIL Sports Officiating Department and various sports board decisions.
